CURRENT POSITION

Dean, College of Education and Human Development, Texas A&M University San Antonio. The Dean reports directly to the provost and provides strong leadership and direction to a robust college of approximately sixty-six faculty, including an assistant dean, three chairs, and four associate chairs. Departments include Curriculum and Instruction; Educator and Leadership Preparation; and Counseling, Health and Kinesiology.

The Dean is the chief academic officer for the College of Education and Human Development and is responsible for the overall development, promotion, and operation of the college. Responsibilities include coordinating, supervising, and developing current and long-range planning in the areas of teaching, curricula, research programs, space, and equipment. The Dean supervises academic advising, degree-plan preparation, maintenance of student records, and certifies students for graduation. Responsibilities pertain to all personnel actions within the college and for timely submission of all required reports, schedules, and documents.

This position interacts with internal and external constituencies, including faculty, administrators, staff, students, alumni, community, and outside agencies.

Responsibilities:

- Initiates and supports activities resulting in continuous improvement of undergraduate and graduate teaching and research, including program accreditation, ongoing curriculum review, reporting quality assurance through the college's Institutional Effectiveness Report and external funding.
- Ensures compliance with college, state, and national expectations and standards, including state standards for approved programs and standards for accreditation.
- Develops plans for the intermediate and long-term development of the college in consultation with the department chairs, faculty, and staff. Integrates these plans into the College's Institutional Effectiveness Plan and Strategic Plan.
- Supervises the administrative staff and department chairs in the conduct of the routine business of the college.
- Maintains programs for effective academic advising, degree planning, and maintenance of student records. Certifies students for graduation. Supports the university's student-recruiting programs and develops college-level student-recruiting programs serving both traditional and non-traditional students.
- Supervises the development of personnel policies and procedures within the college and ensures compliance and consistency with university-wide faculty personnel policies and procedures.
- Identifies faculty and staff personnel needs and demonstrates a commitment to the recruitment, advancement, and retention of a diverse faculty and staff.
- Develops and manages the budget for the college.
- Develops a vision for the college that is consistent with the university's mission as given in the strategic plan and develops plans and priorities to achieve the mission including those related to the accreditation process.
- Provides support to student organizations and activities. Assists in fund-raising activities for the college and assists department chairs with similar activities.
