COURSE DESCRIPTION: Selected rotating topics in music. May be repeated for credit when topics change.

COURSE GOALS AND ASSESSMENT:

- This class functions as an independent study course. Students will select their specific area(s) of interest and create, in conjunction with the instructor, a course plan and outcomes appropriate to the area(s) of interest.
- Students will supplement and expand knowledge and skill sets beyond traditional MUSI course offerings.
- Students will present a culminating project, appropriate to their area of interest, to a select audience by the end of the semester.

TEXTBOOK: There is no official textbook for this class. Students will be provided with any necessary course materials specific to their area of interest.

GRADING SCALE:

- 90% or higher = A
- 80% to 89% = B
- 70% to 79% = C
- 60% to 69% = D
- Below 60% = F

COURSE SCHEDULE:

- Individual students will work with the instructor to select a day and time to meet each week.
- All students, in conjunction with the instructor, will collaborate to identify a time during Final Exam Week (second week of December) to present their respective culminating projects. Alternatively, students whose area of interest is in music performance may opt to appear on the fall concert of University Voices on November 12th at 7:00pm.
- Please see the university's Academic Calendar for more information.

EXTRACURRICULAR MUSIC OPPORTUNITIES:

- Interested in mariachi? Mariachi Los Jaguares Del Sur is dedicated to honoring and preserving the art of mariachi music. The group prides itself on a shared love of music, performance, and Mexican culture. If you are interested in joining, visit JagSync 2.0 to sign up and/or email advisor Amelia Guzman at aguzman@tamusa.edu for more information.
- Interested in band? The San Antonio Community Wind Ensemble meets in the TAMUSA Auditorium on Sunday afternoons and gives several concerts throughout the year. Membership dues are waived for all TAMUSA students. If you are interested in joining, email director Albert Aguilar at sacwe@crossmen.org for more information.

ADDITIONAL UNIVERSITY RESOURCES:

Additional university resources and policies can be found on Blackboard in the Additional University Resources module. These include, but are not limited to, accommodations for persons with disabilities, counseling and mental health resources, the Writing, Language, and Digital Composing Center, Military Affairs, and important dates. Links to helpful websites are also provided in the module.

DISCLAIMER: This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor. Students will be notified as soon as possible of any changes.
