Description of Course Assignments

All assignments are due on Fridays by midnight central standard time and submitted online via Blackboard, unless otherwise noted. Questions should be asked ahead of the due date either during class, office hours, or via email.

Attendance

Since this is a Human Services course, your attendance is measured by engagement with each other, and the course material. Blackboard analytics provides a generous monitor of clicks, session duration and other insights to help faculty determine student interaction with the learning material. While attendance does not serve as a grade in this course, it is taken to meet University reporting standards.

Discussion Video Chats Format:

You will be randomly assigned to a group. The group will meet online via Microsoft Teams at a day and time mutually agreed upon between group members. Each week, one student will send the Teams meeting invitation, begin the meeting, and ensure the meeting is recorded. Please be respectful, and choose whatever works for your group dynamic. The student will record a 15–20-minute video chat wherein all students within the group will reflect on the week's material and any supplemental material they have reviewed. Once the meeting is concluded, locate the meeting transcript in your OneDrive. Then upload a copy of the transcript into the assignment opened in Blackboard.

There is a How-To Guide for this assignment with detailed information on using Microsoft Teams for this purpose.

Your individual grade will be based on your participation within the group as reflected in the transcript that you upload. Each video chat is worth 5% of your overall course grade, and there are a total of four video chats this semester, producing 20% of your overall course grade.

Mid-Term Examination

Your midterm examination will consist of 30 multiple-choice (2 points each) and 4 short answer (10 points each) items from chapters 1-10 of your textbook, in-class lecture material, and slides. This exam will be open for 24 hours, via Blackboard. The exam is worth 20 (20%) points toward your overall course grade.

Article Review

This week you will use the library databases to identify and review a peer-reviewed journal article from a relevant, peer-reviewed journal (example: the Journal of Human Services) that reports the findings of primary research regarding a serious mental illness (abbreviated SMI; PTSD, Major Depressive Disorder, Schizophrenia etc.) AND a substance use disorder of your choice. Choose an article published within the last 5 years and reflects your personal interests.

Do not use a meta-analysis. Use 5 paragraphs to articulate:

- Paragraph 1: Introduction of the article that includes a brief 1-2 sentence summary of the article along with 3-5 sentences about the background/history of the topic and rationale for the study
- Paragraph 2: Identification and description of the method that was implemented (hint: if there's not an identifiable 'methods' section, you are not looking at original research).
- Paragraph 3: Review of the key findings and how those align with the author(s) research questions and hypotheses
- Paragraph 4: Identification of limitations and how these might be improved upon
- Paragraph 5: Your impressions of the practical value of the study for informing practice

Your submitted document should include an APA-formatted title page, main text, and reference page (this includes within-text citations, and a reference list citing the article selected, as well as any other unoriginal material you cite). This assignment is worth 15 (15%) points toward your overall course grade.

BONUS POINTS: Students who complete the TAMUSA Library's Modules and Quiz, "What is a Literature Review" will earn two bonus points on their submitted paper. This may not sound like a lot, but on a 15-point assignment, it can change a letter grade. Submit a screenshot of your quiz completion along with your paper.

Case Study Assignment

You will be individually assigned a case synopsis from which to formulate a thorough case conceptualization, that will be created in an engaging, impactful PowerPoint or similar presentation format and presented during class. This should include:

- Slide 1: History & Biopsychosocial evaluation
- Slide 2: Presenting Concerns and identification of dual-diagnoses/disorders
- Slide 3: Screening & Assessment(s). You must include the Columbia Suicide Severity Rating Scale (C-SSRS) that is most applicable to your client.
- Slide 4: Suggested Interventions and available resources for support
- Slide 5: Summary of Care

Slides will be due via blackboard assignment submission. You will then present your case study in class on a separate day. Your assignment is worth 20 (20%) points toward your overall course grade. While you may work together/collaborate, you must attribute any unoriginal work to its appropriate source or author, and attend to your individual's synopsis.

Final Examination

Your final examination will consist of 30 multiple-choice (2 points each) and 4 short answer (10 points each) items from chapters 11-17 of your textbook, in-class lecture material, and slides and is worth 25 (25%) points toward your overall course grade.

LATE WORK PENALTY (EXAMS NOT INCLUDED):

1 DAY = 11 POINTS DEDUCTED; MAX = B

2 DAYS= 30 POINTS DEDUCTED; MAX = PASSING

AFTER 2 DAYS = WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED, ZERO POINTS

with an opportunity to make up any examination, study, or course work requirements that may be missed due to a religious observance provided they notify their instructors before the end of the second week of classes for regular session classes.

The Six-Drop Rule: Students are subject to the requirements of Senate Bill (SB) 1231 passed by the Texas Legislature in 2007. SB 1231 limits students to a maximum of six (6) non-punitive course drops (i.e. courses a student chooses to drop) during their undergraduate careers. A non-punitive drop does not affect the students GPA. However, course drops that exceed the maximum allowed by SB 1231 will be treated as grades and will impact the students GPA.

Incompletes

The spirit of the “Incomplete” is to give a student an opportunity to complete a course after the end of the semester. An Incomplete will only be considered under specific circumstances: 1. 70% of the class has been completed and student is passing with a “C” or better 2. The circumstance for which the “I” is requested is supported with documentation 3. Student has been attending class on a regular basis Incompletes are not to be used to remedy excessive absences. Unforeseen circumstances precipitating the request for an “I”, should occur near the end of the semester. Students who are experiencing difficulties at the beginning or midway through the course should contact their professor immediately to discuss options. When a professor agrees to grant an “I”, a contract between the student and professor that outlines a specific timeline for completion of the course will be generated. Topics such as highest possible grade will also be outlined. If the contract is not fulfilled, the professor will submit a change of grade form with earned letter grade. All “I”s will automatically revert to an “F” after one year.

Dropping a Course

Each student is responsible for knowing the drop date for any given semester. Professors are not responsible, under any circumstances, for “dropping” a student from a course. Please be aware that if you do not formally drop a course and fail to fulfill the academic requirements, the professor will submit the earned grade.

A&M-San Antonio's Title IX Coordinator can support those impacted by such conduct in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The university strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the Title IX Coordinator. Pregnant/Parenting Students: Texas A&M-San Antonio does not require a pregnant or parenting student, solely because of that status or issues related to that status, to (1) take a leave of absence or withdraw from their degree or certificate program; (2) limit the student's studies; (3) participate in an alternative program; (4) change the student's major, degree, or certificate program; or (5) refrain from joining or cease participating in any course, activity, or program at the University. The university will provide such reasonable modifications to pregnant students as would be provided to a student with temporary medical condition that are related to the health and safety of the student and the student's unborn child. These could include maintaining a safe distance from substances, areas, and activities known to be hazardous to pregnant individuals and their unborn child; excused absences because of illness or medical appointments; modified due dates for assignments; rescheduled tests/exams; taking a leave of absence; and being provided access to instructional materials and video recordings of lectures for excused absences, if these would be provided to any other student with an excused absence. Students' Rights and Responsibilities: The following statement of students' rights and responsibilities is intended to reflect the philosophical base upon which University Student Rules are built. This philosophy acknowledges the existence of both rights and responsibilities, which is inherent to an individual not only as a student at Texas A&M University-San Antonio but also as a citizen of this country.

Students' Rights

1. A student shall have the right to participate in a free exchange of ideas, and there shall be no University rule or administrative rule that in any way abridges the rights of freedom of speech, expression, petition and peaceful assembly as set forth in the U.S. Constitution.
2. Each student shall have the right to participate in all areas and activities of the University, free from any form of discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and pregnancy/parenting or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.
3. A student has the right to personal privacy except as otherwise provided by law, and this will be observed by students and University authorities alike.
4. Each student subject to disciplinary action arising from violations of university students' rules shall be assured a fundamentally fair process.

Students' Responsibilities

1. A student has the responsibility to respect the rights and property of others, including other students, the faculty, and administration.
2. A student has the responsibility to be fully acquainted with the published University Student Rules found in the Student Handbook, Student Code of Conduct, on our website, and University Catalog, and to comply with them, as well as with federal, state, and local laws.
3. A student has the responsibility to recognize that student actions reflect upon the individuals involved and upon the entire University community.
4. A student has the responsibility to recognize the University's obligation to provide a safe environment for learning.
5. A student has the responsibility to check their university email for any updates or official university notifications.

We expect that students will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful, and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation, or disability. Conduct that infringes on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated. Students are expected to exhibit a high level of honesty and integrity in their pursuit of higher education. Students engaging in an act that violates the standards of academic integrity will find themselves facing academic and/or disciplinary sanctions. Academic misconduct is any act, or attempt, which gives an unfair advantage to the student. Additionally, any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion may be considered as academic misconduct. For more information on academic misconduct policies and procedures please review the Student Code of Conduct (<https://www.tamusa.edu/university-policies/student-rights-andresponsibilities/documents/Student-Handbook-2022-23.pdf>) or visit the resources available in the OSRR website (<https://www.tamusa.edu/university-policies/student-rights-and-responsibilities/academicintegrity.html>).

Cheating and Plagiarism

Students are expected to do their own course work. Simple cases of first offense cheating or plagiarism by an individual student may be handled by the instructor after consultation with the department chair. For more serious cases, such as those involving repeated offenses, conspiracy with other students or the theft and selling of examination questions, a report should be made by the instructor via the department chair and college dean to the provost and vice president for Academic Affairs for disciplinary action. Expulsion from the University is a normal penalty for such offenses.

Plagiarism is a serious violation of academic integrity, and students who engage in plagiarism are subject to disciplinary action. The type of disciplinary action will depend on the severity of the plagiarism but may ultimately lead to the student's expulsion from the program and/or revocation of a student's degree, if the student has already graduated. Please review the Student Handbook for a complete description of the process.

Research on Human Subjects

Any research that involves human subjects must be approved by the Institutional Review Board for the Protection of Human Subjects at A&M-San Antonio prior to any data collection. Specific forms, instructions, and additional information are provided online:

Broader Use of Generative AI Permitted Within Guidelines

Use of artificial intelligence (AI) tools, including ChatGPT, is permitted in this course for students who wish to use them. To adhere to our scholarly values, students must cite any AI-generated material that informed their work (this includes in-text citations and/or use of quotations, and in your reference list). Using an AI tool to generate content without proper attribution qualifies as academic dishonesty and violates Texas A&M-San Antonio's standards of academic integrity.

NOTE: Guidance for how to cite AI-generators, like ChatGPT, can be found here
