

Fall 2026 Integrated Reading and Writing Syllabus

ENGL 1101 | Tuesdays | HALL 307
Texas A&M University-San Antonio

About Professor Barron

Email: christen.barron@tamusa.edu

Office: HALL 318

Student Hours: Tuesdays 11:00 am – 1:45 pm or by appointment

Hi! I'm Christen Barron, but most students call me Professor B. I'm a writer, editor, and writing instructor. Originally from Savannah, Georgia, I hold an M.F.A. in Writing and a B.F.A. in Dramatic Writing from Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD). I've taught writing classes at Texas A&M-University San Antonio since 2017 and serve as the faculty supervising editor for Mosaic, our campus literary magazine.

Outside of work, I love art journaling, hiking, and rewatching nostalgic movies from the 90s and early 2000s. I believe creativity is one of the most important skills you can have as a student, even when writing in academic genres. Welcome to Integrated Reading and Writing. I'm rooting for you!

Course Catalog Description

This course is designed to support students in improving their reading comprehension of college-level texts and their writing effectiveness. This course is corequisite with ENGL 1301L and is designed to help students stay organized and navigate that course. Successful completion of this course with a C or better fulfills INRW TSI requirements (TSI, 2002). Credit earned for this course does not count toward any degree offered by the university. Corequisite(s): ENGL 1301L. TSI Restriction(s): TSI Incomplete in ELAR

Student Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcomes
Understand Grammar, Usage, and Mechanics
Understand key concepts of audience, purpose, and genre
Read and analyze texts using annotation and discussion strategies
Develop your own individual reading and writing practices
Critically examine your language practices, goals, and needs
Apply Morphology to improve comprehension
Choose proper syntax, usage level, and tone for writing task

Required Materials

- Equipment: A laptop or tablet with a reliable internet connection
- Notebook, pen, highlighter, and sticky notes for in-class writing
- Software: Google Chrome (other browsers such as Safari or Microsoft Edge may not be compatible with Blackboard/course material)
- Software: A word processor, such as Microsoft Word or Google Docs
- Software: Canva subscription (free version)
- Textbook: Free, open-access course readings linked on Blackboard

Grading

This course uses Labor Based Assessment (LBA). This means your course grade will be based primarily on the amount of work you put into the course, not the perceived “quality” of your submitted writing assignments. However, you must attend class regularly, submit your work by specified deadlines, and ask for help when you need it. Additionally, your submitted coursework must reflect your commitment to academic integrity and desire to develop as a reader and writer. If your submitted work appears incomplete, unoriginal, or unrelated to the unique context of our in-class discussions, you will be asked to revise and resubmit your work for grading.

Assignments

Below is a summary of course assignments. Detailed instructions are provided on Blackboard.

Assignment	Description
Attendance	Attendance and active engagement in each scheduled course session
Daily Class Writing	In-class writing exercises that correspond with class lectures. These exercises are designed to help you achieve course learning outcomes and practice your reading and writing skills. Example topics include pre-writing, annotation and reading strategies, grammar, and check-ins for 1301L assignments (12 tasks)
Class Journal	A journal containing your notes and annotations for assigned course reading in 1301L (must contain entries for each assigned reading for 1301L) and/or brainstorming for 1301L writing assignments (12 tasks).
Final Reflection	A reflection essay describing your learning and growth in the course.

Each class task is worth 3 points. If you complete 80% of the assigned tasks, you will receive a B in the class.

Numerical Grade Equivalents

Final course grades are calculated on the standard scale:

A = 100-90 | B = 89-80 | C = 79-70 | D = 69-60 | F = 59 or less

Late Work Policy

Course assignments in ENGL 1101 are designed to support you in your ENGL 1301L coursework. Plan to submit each Daily Writing assignment by the end of class session and Class Journals each Sunday to maximize their intended benefits and avoid falling behind in the course.

I also recognize that everyone in this class is human. We get sick, we have emergencies, and “off” weeks. As a result, I offer a seven-day “no questions asked” grace period on all assignments except the Final Reflection. Keep in mind that I don't provide feedback on late assignments, so please plan to submit assignments on time whenever possible to ensure you receive feedback on your writing.

Blackboard is set to automatically score missing assignments as “0” once the stated deadline has passed. This ensures you are promptly notified when you have missed an assignment deadline. You can remedy the “0” score by submitting the missing assignment within the seven-day grace period. If you find yourself struggling to submit work within the grace period, please let me know so we can work together to find a solution.

Attendance

You are considered absent if you are not present for class or arrive so late/leave so early that you're unable to meaningfully participate in class discussions or the Daily Writing assignment. Your first two absences are automatically excused during the final grading period. If you're having trouble attending class due to extenuating circumstances, please schedule a meeting with me or attend my student hours so we can create a solution that best supports your success in the course.

Respect

As your instructor, I'm committed to creating a classroom setting that encourages mutual respect, trust, and intellectual curiosity. Please arrive at each assignment and class session with an open mind and use respect when communicating with me and your classmates. Remember that sharing writing, ideas, and experiences in a classroom setting can be an intimidating and even vulnerable act for many students. Let's learn from each other and embrace the uncertain, messy struggle of being human. However, if you use violent, harassing, or discriminatory language, you will be reported to the university and may be subject to Student Code of Conduct policies.

Personal Conferences

This semester, you and your peers will work together in writing workshop groups, and you will also work individually on assignments. As you work, I will circulate around the room and talk to each of you individually. Please be prepared to share with me what you are working on, what your current reading/writing goal is, and how I can support you in this. You may also ask me to help support you in Digication, Blackboard, and in communicating with your other professors. I will assist you in all your college-going habits.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is defined as the intentional use of another's "language, ideas, or original (not common knowledge) material" without acknowledgement ("Defining and Avoiding Plagiarism"). If you plagiarize, copy, or otherwise cheat on an assignment, you will receive a permanent zero on that assignment without the opportunity for revision.

Generative AI

The INRW program expects you to generate your own content this semester. However, there are situations and contexts within our courses where you may use generative artificial intelligence (GAI) tools to support your work as a writer. For example, GAI technologies such as ChatGPT can work well as a starting point for written assignments, assisting you with brainstorming, outlining, generating ideas, and collecting basic information about a topic/idea. Note that the emphasis here is on "support." GAI programs have been shown to provide biased or incorrect information, and to generate writing that lacks human imagination. For these reasons, the FYC program discourages you from using GAI technology to generate content for you. If you have reason to use GAI to generate content with you, consult with your professor before doing so. Using GAI content without your professor's permission and/or without proper attribution qualifies as plagiarism.

Course Communication

I post important course updates, announcements, and assignment reminders on the course Blackboard announcements page each week. If I need to contact you about a grade or other course matter, I will email you through your campus email account. You will also receive copies of Blackboard announcements, Blackboard messages, and assignment reminders through your campus email account. I encourage you to check both Blackboard and your campus email a few times a week.

If you need to contact me directly, please email christen.barron@tamusa.edu through your campus email account. You can expect a response in 1-48 hours during campus business hours. For less urgent matters, you can message me through Blackboard.

If you experience technical difficulties with Blackboard, contact the ITS Help Desk: (210) 784-4357 or helpdesk@tamusa.edu.

Important University Policies and Resources

University Email Policy and Course Communications

All correspondence between professors and students must occur via university email accounts. You must have your Jaguar email account ready and working. If it is not working, contact the help desk at helpdesk@tamusa.edu or at 210-784-HELP (4357). If you don't hear back within 48 hours, contact them again. They have many requests during the first part of the semester, so you may need to follow up with them.

Academic Accommodations for Individuals with Disabilities

Texas A&M University-San Antonio is committed to providing all students with reasonable access to learning opportunities and accommodations in accordance with The Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. If you experience barriers to your education due to a disability or think you may have a disability, Disability Support Services is located in the Central Academic Building, Suite 210. You can also contact us via phone at (210) 784-1335, visit us at the website or email us at dss@tamusa.edu. All students are encouraged to discuss their academic accommodation with Disability Support Services and their instructors as soon as possible.

Academic Learning Center

All currently enrolled students at Texas A&M University-San Antonio can utilize the Academic Learning Center for subject-area tutoring. The Academic Learning Center provides free course-based tutoring to all currently enrolled students at Texas A&M University-San Antonio. Students wishing to work with a tutor can make appointments through the Brainfuse online tutoring platform. Brainfuse can be accessed in the Tools section of Blackboard. You can contact the Academic Learning Center by emailing tutoring@tamusa.edu, calling (210) 784-1307, or visiting the Central Academic Building, room 202. Online tutoring is also available for after hours and weekend assistance. While tutoring hours may change based on tutor schedules and availability, the current tutoring hours for MATH in the ALC are as follows:

Day of the Week	Appointments available	Walk in Tutoring – No appointment needed
MONDAY	8 am – 6 pm	9 am – 5 pm
TUESDAY	8 am – 6 pm	9 am – 5 pm
WEDNESDAY	8 am – 6 pm	9 am – 5 pm
THURSDAY	8 am – 6 pm	9 am – 5 pm
FRIDAY	8 am – 5 pm	11 am – 4 pm

Counseling/Mental Health Resources

As a college student, there may be times when personal stressors interfere with your academic performance and negatively impact your daily functioning. If you are experiencing emotional difficulties or mental health concerns, support is available to you through the Student Counseling Center (SCC). To schedule an appointment, visit our website, call 210-784-1331 or visit Madla 120 between the hours of 8:00 AM and 5:00 PM.

All mental health services provided by the SCC are free and confidential (as the law allows). The Student Counseling Center provides brief individual and group therapy, crisis intervention, consultation, case management, and prevention services. Crisis support is available 24/7/365 by calling the SCC at 210-784-1331 or through the TELUS student support App.

The TELUS Student Support App provides a variety of mental health resources to including 24/7/365 support for in the moment distress, crisis support, an anonymous peer-to-peer support network, mental health screenings, podcasts, and articles to improve your mental wellbeing.

Emergency Preparedness

JagE Alert is Texas A&M University-San Antonio's mass notification system. In the event of an emergency, such as inclement weather, students, staff and faculty, who are registered, will have the option to receive a text message, email with instructions and updates. To register or update your information visit: <https://tamusa.bbcportal.com/>. More information on emergency response may be found at: Emergency Operations Plan and the Emergency Action Plan.

Download the SafeZone App (<https://safezoneapp.com/>) for emergencies or call (210) 784-1911. Non-Emergency (210) 784-1900.

Financial Aid and Verification of Attendance

According to the following federal regulation, 34 CFR 668.21: U.S. Department of Education (DoE) Title IV regulation, a student can only receive Title IV funds based on Title IV eligibility criteria which include class attendance. If Title IV funds are disbursed to ineligible students (including students who fail to begin attendance), the institution must return these funds to the U.S. DoE within 30 days of becoming aware that the student will not or has not begun attendance. Faculty will provide the Office of Financial Aid with an electronic notification if a student has not attended by the published Census Date (the first week of class). Any student receiving federal financial aid who does not attend prior to the published Census Date (the first week of class) will have their aid terminated and returned to the DoE. Please note that any student who stops attending at any time during the semester may also need to return a portion of their federal aid.

Jaguar Writing, Language, and Digital Composing Center (WLDCC)

The WLDCC provides support to graduate and undergraduate students in all three colleges as well as faculty and staff. Writing tutors work with students to develop reading skills, prepare oral presentations, and plan, draft, and revise their written assignments. Our language tutors support students enrolled in Spanish courses and students composing in Spanish for any assignment. Our digital studio tutors support students working on digital projects such as eportfolios, class presentations, or other digital multimedia projects. The WLDCC offers face-to-face, synchronous online, and asynchronous digital appointments. Students can schedule appointments with the WLDCC in JagWire under the Student Services tab. Click on "Writing, Language, and Digital Composing Center" to make your appointment. Students wanting to work in realtime with a tutor can schedule an "Online Appointment." Students wishing to receive asynchronous, written feedback from a tutor can schedule an "eTutoring" appointment. More information about what services we offer, how to make an appointment, and how to access your appointment can be found on our website. The WLDCC can also be reached by emailing wldcc@tamusa.edu.

Meeting Basic Needs

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect their performance in the course, is urged to submit a CARE report for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so. This will enable them to direct you to available resources. A food pantry is available on campus; click here for hours and contact information.

Military Affairs

Veterans and active-duty military personnel are welcomed and encouraged to visit the Office of Military Affairs for any question involving federal or state VA Education Benefits. Visit the Patriots' Casa building, room 202, or to contact the Office of Military Affairs with any questions at military.va@tamusa.edu or (210)784-1397.

Religious Observances

Texas A&M University-San Antonio recognizes the wide variety of faiths represented among the campus community and protects the rights of students, faculty, and staff to observe religious holidays according to their tradition. Under the policy, students are provided an opportunity to make up any examination, study, or course work requirements that may be missed due to a religious observance provided they notify their instructors before the end of the second week of classes for regular session classes.

The Six-Drop Rule

Students are subject to the requirements of Senate Bill (SB) 1231 passed by the Texas Legislature in 2007. SB 1231 limits students to a maximum of six (6) non-punitive course drops (i.e., courses a student chooses to drop) during their undergraduate careers. A non-punitive drop does not affect the student's GPA. However, course drops that exceed the maximum allowed by SB 1231 will be treated as "F" grades and will impact the student's GPA.

Statement of Harassment and Discrimination

Texas A&M University-San Antonio is committed to the fundamental principles of academic freedom, equal opportunity, and human dignity. To fulfill its multiple missions as an institution of higher learning, A&M-San Antonio encourages a climate that values and nurtures collegiality and the uniqueness of the individual on our campus and within our state, nation, and world. All decisions and actions involving students and employees are to be based on applicable law and individual merit. Texas A&M University-San Antonio, in accordance with applicable federal and state law, prohibits discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, or pregnancy/parenting status. Individuals who believe they have experienced harassment or discrimination prohibited by this statement are encouraged to contact the University's Civil Rights Officer at 210-784-2061 or titleix@tamusa.edu.

Texas A&M University-San Antonio faculty are committed to providing a safe learning environment for all students and for the university as a whole. If you have experienced any form of sex discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, domestic or dating violence, or stalking based on sex, know that help and support are available. A&M-San Antonio's Title IX Coordinator can support those impacted by such conduct in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The university strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the Title IX Coordinator. Please be aware that all A&M-San Antonio employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as counselors and trained victim advocates) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the university. This means that if you tell a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment, sexual violence, or other related sex-based misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the university's Title IX Coordinator (titleix@tamusa.edu, 210-784-2061, CAB 439K). If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting requirement, you can contact the Student Counseling Center at (210) 784-1331 or visit them in Madla 120.

Pregnant/Parenting Students

Texas A&M-San Antonio does not require a pregnant or parenting student, solely because of that status or issues related to that status, to (1) take a leave of absence or withdraw from their degree or certificate program; (2) limit the student's studies; (3) participate in an alternative program; (4) change the student's major, degree, or certificate program; or (5) refrain from joining or cease participating in any course, activity, or program at the University. The university will provide such reasonable accommodations to pregnant students as would be provided to a student with a temporary medical condition that are related to the health and safety of the student and the student's unborn child. These could include maintaining a safe distance from substances, areas, and activities known to be hazardous to pregnant individuals and their unborn child; excused absences because of illness or medical appointments; modified due dates for assignments; rescheduled tests/exams; taking a leave of absence; and being provided access to instructional materials and video recordings of lectures for excused absences, if these would be provided to any other student with an excused absence. Pregnant/parenting students are encouraged to contact the Title IX Coordinator with any questions or concerns related to their status (titleix@tamusa.edu; 210-784-2061; CAB 439K). Texas A&M-San Antonio has also designated the Title IX Coordinator as the liaison officer for current or incoming students who are the parent or guardian of a child younger than 18 years of age. The Title IX Coordinator can provide students with information regarding support services and other resources.

Young Jaguars

Young Jaguars can support parenting students with daycare if students meet this criteria: (1) must be enrolled in classes at Texas A&M-San Antonio in the current semester, (2) must be Pell eligible or a single parent, (3) child(ren) must be aged 3 to 12-years-old, and (4) child(ren) must be enrolled in Pre-K-3 through 6th grade. Hours of operation is Monday-Thursday 3:30pm-9:00pm. For more information, please contact Young Jaguars at youngjaguars@tamusa.edu or call (210) 784-2636.

Students' Rights and Responsibilities

The following statement of students' rights and responsibilities is intended to reflect the philosophical base upon which University Student Rules are built. This philosophy acknowledges the existence of both rights and responsibilities, which is inherent to an individual not only as a student at Texas A&M University-San Antonio but also as a citizen of this country.

Students' Rights

1. A student shall have the right to participate in a free exchange of ideas, and there shall be no University rule or administrative rule that in any way abridges the rights of freedom of speech, expression, petition and peaceful assembly as set forth in the U.S. Constitution.
2. Each student shall have the right to participate in all areas and activities of the University, free from any form of discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, and pregnancy/parenting or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.
3. A student has the right to personal privacy except as otherwise provided by law, and this will be observed by students and University authorities alike.
4. Each student subject to disciplinary action arising from violations of university student rules shall be assured a fundamentally fair process.

Students' Responsibilities

1. A student has the responsibility to respect the rights and property of others, including other students, the faculty, and administration.
2. A student has the responsibility to be fully acquainted with the published University Student Rules found in the Student Handbook, Student Code of Conduct, on our website, and University Catalog, and to comply with them, as well as with federal, state, and local laws.
3. A student has the responsibility to recognize that student actions reflect upon the individuals involved and upon the entire University community.
4. A student has the responsibility to recognize the University's obligation to provide a safe environment for learning.
5. A student has the responsibility to check their university email for any updates or official university notifications.

We expect that students will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful, and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, or disability. Conduct that infringes on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Students are expected to exhibit a high level of honesty and integrity in their pursuit of higher education. Students engaging in an act that violates the standards of academic integrity will find themselves facing academic and/or disciplinary sanctions. Academic misconduct is any act, or attempt, which gives an unfair advantage to the student. Additionally, any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion may be considered as academic misconduct. For more information on academic misconduct policies and procedures please review the Student Code of Conduct or visit the resources available in the OSRR website
