Site Description Assignment

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATOR

Site Description* (aligns to the Comprehensive Guidance and Counseling Program Framework)

Through the site description, students will complete provide an overview of their campus counseling program with attention to the Texas Model for Comprehensive School Counseling Programs. Using the outline provided, students will apply their learnings to create a site overview and framework.

Assignment rubric will be completed through Tevera software. Through the site description, students will:

1. Define the school counseling structural components.
2. Provide the school counselor position definition and ratio.
3. Define and describe the school counseling service delivery components; and
4. Evaluate the comprehensive school counseling program and school counselor.

The School Guidance and Counseling Site Description is used to determine the level of student knowledge and skills related to the following CACREP Standards:

- 3H-1 Models of school counseling programs
- 3H-4 Development of school counseling program mission statements and objectives
- 3H-5 Design and evaluation of school counseling curriculum, lesson plan development, diverse classroom management strategies, and differentiated instructional strategies
- 3H-6 School counselor roles as leaders, advocates, and systems change agents in P-12 schools

Students who fail a summative assignment (receive a rating scale of 2 or below) will meet with the issuing faculty and schedule a Fitness to Practice Committee meeting. The CCS-R will be completed for each student enrolled in the internship class through Tevera software. The Fitness to Practice Committee meeting will result in the student being placed on a developmental plan or dismissed from the program.

 - b. Intrapersonal Effectiveness
 - c. Post-secondary Planning and Career Awareness
 - d. Personal Health and Safety
2. Responsive Services
 - a. Prevention
 - b. Remediation
 - c. Crisis (including)
 - i. Academic; School Related; Relationship concerns
 - ii. Physical, sexual, and emotional abuse as described
3. Individual Planning
 - a. Educational
 - b. Career
 - c. Personal
 - d. Social
4. System Support
 - a. Program management, development, and evaluation
 - i. School improvement planning
 - ii. Counselor's professional development
 - iii. Research and publishing
 - iv. System-wide wellness
 - v. Campus crisis plan
 - b. Consultation

- i. Parent education
 - ii. Teacher and administrator consultation
 - iii. Staff development for educators
 - iv. Community outreach
 - v. Public relations
- c. Data Analysis and Accountability

The relative emphasis of each component will vary from district to district, perhaps from campus to campus, depending on the developmental and special needs of the students served.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Class Meetings (Group Supervision)

A vital part of every student's education is regular attendance of class meetings. Any absences tend to lower the quality of a student's work in a course, and frequent or persistent absences may preclude a passing grade or cause a student to be dropped from one or more courses upon the request of a faculty member to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. It is imperative that you are there for all class meetings to interact and share your expertise with your classmates. On your 2nd absence (regardless of reason) 5 points will be deducted from your grade. From that point on, any additional absences after the 2nd will also result in the deduction of 5 points from your grade (regardless of the reason) and you may be dropped from the course. Many of you will be coming to class directly from work. Nevertheless, you will need to schedule to be on time. Arriving to class late twice (more than 15 minutes) will be considered an absence and will result in a 5-point deduction to the course grade.

Site Attendance: You must be at your site as per your agreement with it. You MUST provide adequate notice if you will not be present.

OTHER INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE CLASS: (phone, food, etc.)

Cell Phones and Eating: PLEASE TURN OFF CELL PHONES during class. Beverages are acceptable in class; however, please clean up when leaving. LIMIT TEXTING OR E-MAILING DURING CLASS. DOING SO WILL AFFECT YOUR PARTICIPATION GRADE IN CLASS.

Graduate Class Policies: A student has the right to expect competent, well-organized instruction for the full number of clock hours allotted for a course; to sufficient written assignments, graded fairly and with reasonable promptness to show the student's academic standing in the course at least before mid-semester; to have ample opportunity to confer with the instructor at published office hours and to review graded written work; to freedom from ridicule, discrimination, harassment or accusations in the presence of other students or faculty members; and to an avenue for appealing to higher academic authority in case of alleged unfairness by an instructor.

Student Rights and Responsibilities: As members of the University community, all enrolled students assume full responsibility for adhering to the university's values and goals. Students are held responsible for staying abreast of their rights as students and for being cognizant of what is deemed proper conduct as outlined in the Student Handbook. The Student Handbook is available through the Student Rights and Responsibilities webpage: <https://www.tamusa.edu/student-rights-and-responsibilities/documents/studenthandbook2021-2022.pdf>

Cheating and Plagiarism: Students are expected to do their own course work. Simple cases of first offense cheating or plagiarism by an individual student may be handled by the instructor after consultation with the department chair. For more serious cases, such as those involving repeated offenses, conspiracy with other students or the theft and selling of examination questions, a report should be made by the instructor via the department chair and college dean to the provost and vice president for Academic Affairs for disciplinary action. Expulsion from the University is a normal penalty for such offenses.

Plagiarism is a serious violation of academic integrity, and students who engage in plagiarism are subject to disciplinary action. The type of disciplinary action will depend on the severity of the plagiarism but may ultimately lead to the student's expulsion from the program and/or revocation of a student's degree if the student has already graduated. Please review the Student Handbook for a complete description of the process.

Absences for Religious Holidays: The university will allow students who are absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence if, not later than the fifteenth day after the first day of the semester, that student has notified the instructor of each class to be missed. The instructor may appropriately respond if a student fails to complete the assignment or examination within a reasonable time after the absence.

Research on Human Subjects: Any research that involves human subjects must be approved by the Institutional Review Board for the Protection of Human Subjects at A&M-San Antonio prior to any data collection. Specific forms, instructions, and additional information are provided online: Institutional Review Board \(IRB\) \(tamusa.edu\)

Message for pregnant and parenting students: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX"), 20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq., protects students in all the academic, educational, extracurricular, athletic, and other programs or activities of universities. This includes prohibiting discrimination against pregnant and parenting students. A student who is pregnant or parenting is entitled to special services. Texas A&M University-San Antonio is committed to implementing all provisions of Title IX. For availing of special services available to students whose curricular and co-curricular work is impacted by pregnancy and parenting related issues contact Kimele Carter, Director of Disability Services (Kimele.Carter@tamusa.edu).

Nonacademic misconduct: The University respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class, (2) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Dean of Students under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual Misconduct: Sexual harassment of students and employees at Texas A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

Americans with Disabilities Act: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities.

Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides reasonable accommodation for their disability. Disability Support Services (DSS) provides services, auxiliary aids and accommodations for students at Texas A&M University-San Antonio (A&M-SA) who have self-identified, registered, and provided DSS with documentation supporting their disability. Students may access additional information on the Disability Support Services webpage: Disability Support Services \(tamusa.edu\)

Counseling Resources: As a college student, there may be times when personal stressors interfere with your academic performance and/or negatively impact your daily functioning. If you or someone you know is experiencing life stressors, emotional difficulties, or mental health concerns at Texas A&M University – San Antonio, please contact the Student Counseling Center (SCC) located in Modular C, Room 166 (Rear entrance) or call 210-784-1331 (available 24/7). All mental health services provided by the SCC are free, confidential (as the law allows), and are not part of a student’s academic or university record. SCC provides brief individual, couples, and group therapy, crisis intervention, consultation, case management, and prevention services. For more information, please visit: <https://www.tamusa.edu/student-counseling/>

In a crisis, please walk into the Student Counseling Center (SCC) any time between 8:00AM and 5:00PM to be seen by a licensed clinician. After hours, please contact UPD at 911, call 210-784-1331, or text “HOME” to 741-741 24/7/365 to connect with a trained crisis counselor. The National Suicide Prevention hotline also offers a 24/7/365 hotline at 1-800-273-8255.

Incompletes: Incompletes are not awarded in the Internship class due to the importance of continuous experiences at the internship site. Incompletes cannot be used to remedy excessive missed classes or non-completion of required hours. If it becomes clear you will not be able to complete your required experience hours this semester, you will need to drop the course and re-enroll for a subsequent semester.

Dropping the course: Each student is responsible for knowing the drop dates for any given semester. Professors are not responsible, under any circumstances, for “dropping” a student from a course. Please be aware that if you do not formally drop a course and fail to fulfill the academic requirements, the professor will submit the earned grade.

Grading Policy

All assignments must be submitted to receive a passing grade. Assignments must be submitted “on time” to receive full credit. Late assignments will only be eligible for partial credit. Please see syllabus for due dates.

Specific instructions will be added if social isolation/online instruction is needed.

Youth Mental Health First Aide Training at TAMUSA:

If you completed the module for the Youth Mental Health First Aid Training provided by TAMUSA, you will receive 100 points credit. This credit can ONLY be used in the TEA Internship 5362 course and will replace certain assignments (as noted above in the syllabus). Please upload your certificate to Blackboard in order to receive your credit. Any additional work will NOT result in additional (extra credit) points or replace the training if you have not completed it prior to enrollment in the course.

The final grade also includes the Professor's judgment regarding the student's growth during internship experiences, and such items as quality of participation in supervision, development of collaboration at the Field Site, timeliness in completing assignments, attendance and punctuality at the site and in class meetings, professional attitude and demeanor, fitness to practice, and potential for success in the school counseling profession.

Tevera software lists internship class assignments, which students will use to upload major assignments and time logs. Time logs are submitted weekly in addition to the Key Performance Indicator. The above documents will be submitted through alternative means, either in person or electronically through Blackboard. Instructor will notify class if hard copy of portfolio is required.

GRADING CRITERIA:

A = 450-500

B = 400-449

C = 350-399

D/F = below 349 and/or failure to turn in all assignments and/or attend all class meetings

In order to receive an “A,” all assignments must be completed, submitted, and well done. A “B” grade symbolizes above average knowledge and entry-level appropriate application of school guidance and counseling competence and commitment. A “C” grade symbolizes a need to exert more effort to achieve success in actual counseling practice. A final grade of “F” may be assigned in cases where the student violates any of the policies cited above, commits an ethical violation, has poor attendance, OR a failure to complete any of the required assignments (i.e., tapes, tape scripts, case study, session plans, required internship hours, evaluations, etc.) or failure to attend the required supervision meetings.

Late Written Assignments

One point will be deducted off your total (assignment) grade for each day one of the written assignments is turned in late. E-mail me an explanation about late work so that it is documented. Otherwise, I will NOT accept your late assignment. *All assignments must be completed for a final grade to be assigned

Course Policies and Expectations

INSURANCE: It is required that you have professional liability insurance coverage and that you have cleared a criminal background check. Current employment by a school district will satisfy the criminal background check requirement. Verification of liability insurance is due and downloaded to Tevera by first class meeting. You may not begin accumulating direct hours until all permission forms have been signed and the proof of liability has been submitted.

There are several options for professional liability insurance:

1. Texas Counseling Association* – <https://www.txca.org/>
2. American Counseling Association* – <http://www.counseling.org/>
3. Healthcare Providers Service Organization – <http://www.hpso.com/>

4. American School Counselor Association* – <http://www.schoolcounselor.org/>
* Membership in these professional organizations may provide coverage as a benefit of membership.

INTERNSHIP TIME & EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS (Site Visits):

Minimum of 200 clock hours during which time the student performs the legally appropriate work of a school counselor and is being supervised. Eighty (80) of these hours must be in direct services to students/clients with the majority (at least 40) consisting of individual counseling and group counseling. Students must lead a minimum of 1 group (consisting of 6-8 sessions) per semester for their field experience. The remaining 120 hours include such legally appropriate, client focused experiences as educational and career guidance, assessment interpretation, referral & coordination, program management, and such professional responsibilities as record keeping, and supervision. These hours may also include such appropriate administrative tasks as client/counseling associated paperwork, staffing's, treatment planning, training, school counseling related professional development activities. You are expected to comply with legal, ethical and professional standards relevant to your internship work setting, and to relate to others (e.g., clients, staff, and classmates) in a professional manner.

INTERNSHIP LOG: Using the forms provided on assignments in Tevera software, document the hours spent in your internship activities. Follow the internship and log guidelines provided in this syllabus and in the assignment sheet. Hours must be evenly accrued over the course of the semester.

Observations of counselors at the other two school levels for a minimum of 1/2 day each are required. Sites and dates of these observations are recorded on the Internship Log Summary Page. Individual supervision sessions with your site supervisors as well as university Internship class meetings may be counted toward your indirect hours. Non-internship TAMUSA classes as well as teacher workshops may not be counted in your internship log.

Return the completed Field Site Contract by the 2nd class meeting, and coordinate a meeting of yourself, your Internship Site Supervisor and your University Field Supervisor at your Field Site before the 3rd class meeting.

CLASS PARTICIPATION entails not only attendance at class meetings, but also active participation in the class discussions, using the reading materials to support understanding of effective practice of professional counseling and the school counseling clients.

ASSIGNMENT DETAILS: You will receive separate handouts in a timely manner that provide detail for the internship log, description of the field site counseling program, counseling session summaries, group counseling plan, other guidance program activities (lesson plan, small group counseling, referral), written progress report and evaluations by your Site Supervisor, tapes and tape scripts, reflection paper, case study, and case write-up.

Reflections are to be included as part of your log. These notes reflect your internship experiences and learnings on such topics as what counseling is, the counseling process and relationship, your theory of choice-at-the-moment, how you conceptualize client issues, what you learn from your clients, ethical applications you become aware of and issues you are experiencing, techniques you find yourself re-using, insights regarding the purpose and value of professional supervision, assessment of your own levels of professionalism (i.e., your competence in the various roles to be fulfilled, and your commitment to your chosen counseling specialty), or anything else you want that is relevant to your development as a professional counselor.

Professional Development Experience: At minimum, this experience may be attendance at 5 hours of professional school counseling relevant workshop(s) or the reading of one complete, recent professional counseling journal (i.e., ASCA's Professional School Counseling, ACA's Journal of Counseling and Development, a TCA Journal, or a journal of another relevant ACA Division.) Your submitted notes should capture not only what you learned from this experience, but your reflections afterward as to if and how it applies to your plans for practicing counseling.

University Supervision: Three on-site visits which entail live observations and supervision meetings will be conducted with the University (Field Supervisor) and the Site Supervisor. This mutually agreed upon time commitment should be respected as well. Cancellations of meetings are discouraged due to the timeline. The purpose of the individual session is for you to receive feedback from a resource in addition to your site supervisor. If internship is not conducted for TEA accreditation purposes, on site-visit observations will be amended to follow EDCG 5385 syllabus.

EMERGENCIES: Clients may present in emergency situations. To that end, the counselor trainee will first consult with the site supervisor. The counselor trainee may then contact the university instructor. Always follow the guidelines set forth at your site. Consult, consult, consult!

RESPONSIBILITIES

Responsibilities of the Internship Student

1. Maintain high ethical standards. Breaches of these Standards may be grounds for dismissal from TAMU-SA's counseling program.
2. Provide a copy of this Syllabus to your Field Site Supervisor.
3. Perform counseling tasks/assignments as directed by your Field Site Supervisor and refrain from "freelancing" counseling.
4. Participate actively in supervision with your Field Site Supervisor at least one hour per week.
5. Improve performance in response to feedback from either the site or field supervisor.
6. Be consistent with customs in the school or agency in regard to work ethics, e.g. professional demeanor, grooming, punctuality, attendance, dependability, etc.
7. Complete specified assignments and documentation according to the time schedule on this Syllabus. All documentation should be legible and written in a professional and thoughtful manner.

8. Demonstrate professional entry-level competence in counseling and some or all of the additional professional counseling roles.
9. Attend all university class meetings. When another internship section exists, a student will be allowed to make up one class meeting absence by attending the other section during the same week as the necessary absence. Prior permission (24 hours) must be obtained from the instructor in order to attend another internship section.
10. Demonstrate professional and respectful behavior during all university class meetings and all internship experiences.
11. All parties agree to adhere to the TEA Code of Ethics

Responsibilities of the Site Supervisor

1. Produce/provide a resume/vita
2. Hold a master's degree, the certification/licensure required of your job assignment, and three years of counseling experience.
3. Provide orientation to work setting, personnel, and counseling and guidance program.
4. Review the course syllabus with the internship student.
5. Involve the student in all aspects of the professional counseling position.
6. Assign clients/students for counseling experiences appropriate to the professional role and to the entry-level training of the internship student.
7. Cooperate with the student to ensure accrual of as many legitimate hours in professional counseling activities as feasible and completion of course assignments.
8. Conduct 1 scheduled hour of individual supervision each week with the student to facilitate their professional growth and internship progress and to sign off on the hours logged for the week.
9. Encourage the student to join and participate in professional associations.
10. Consult with the University-based Field Supervisor during the three site visits.
11. Complete and discuss with the student Interim and Final Evaluations that reflect data-based analysis of the student's strengths and weaknesses. A minimum of two live observations are required. Submit the completed observation and evaluation forms to the University supervisor (via the student is acceptable).
12. Consult with the university-based field supervisor as needed regarding student's progress, especially if deficiencies are observed, feedback has been provided, and resultant improvement has not occurred.
13. Suggest a letter grade that summarizes the student's performance at the internship site.
14. All parties agree to adhere to the TEA Code of Ethics

Responsibilities of the University Professor/Field Supervisor

1. Consult with the site supervisor on student placement and progress.

2. Provide an internship orientation for the site supervisor. Provide on-site supervisor with all pertinent information related to the expectations for the student's internship experience.
3. Conduct on-site observations a minimum of three times per semester, and more as needed.
4. Consult with the student.
5. Meet with the student in group and in individual supervision sessions as scheduled.
6. Assign a grade at the completion of the internship experience.
7. All parties agree to adhere to the TEA Code of Ethics
