CONTACT GUIDELINES

I will strive to be available to aid your learning process by providing several ways to contact me:

- Email: Please only use official university e-mail and include the course, section, and full name in the subject line. Please do not use Blackboard messages. The email noted above is my primary and preferred point of contact outside of the classroom.

I will check my email regularly on Monday – Friday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. I will generally respond within 24 hours of your email. If you do not receive a reply after 24 hours, please email again and/or follow up directly with me in class or during office hours (see above). I will not be available by email during the weekends. Any emails received during the weekend will be replied to on the subsequent Monday. Please plan accordingly. Especially when it comes to clarifying assignment instructions and/or submission requirements.

In all communications, please be professional in your tone and specific in your message (i.e., avoid informal correspondence styles like text messaging which lack appropriate punctuation and capitalization). Your correspondence MUST include the information specified above. If you send an email without sufficient information, I likely will not reply or may reply asking for clarification about your inquiry (this can result in an unnecessary delay). Please begin a new email thread instead of responding to older emails if you are beginning a new conversation unrelated to the previous email (this helps minimize confusion caused by chain replies).

- Office Hours: I will be available in my office (STEM 249B) to meet during office hours (see above) or by appointment. Office hours are dedicated to interacting with and providing students assistance regarding coursework. An appointment is not necessary to attend these hours, but interactions are limited to a first come, first served basis. If there is a specific assignment/materials or topic you want to discuss, providing advance notice will allow me to have these resources ready. If students cannot meet during these times, an alternative time can be requested via email, and I will do my best to try to accommodate students accordingly. For discussions involving more personal and/or sensitive information, some form of advance notice is recommended.

ASSESSMENT & EVALUATION

All assignments, with the exception of some in-class work, will be administered from and turned into Blackboard. No paper copies will be accepted unless otherwise noted. Late work will not be accepted without a university-approved excuse and/or advance notice with instructor approval. Additionally, you are expected to complete all work independently (see Academic Integrity section for more details on independent work).

The following descriptions are intentionally brief. Detailed instructions will be available in class and through Blackboard throughout the semester. Each assignment will have a specific set of instructions students will be required to follow.

- Homework Assignments – 20 points. Five homework assignments will be administered throughout the semester, each worth 20 points. The topic/format of the homework assignment will depend on the content for the week. These homework assignments will be completed outside of class.

- Exams – 80 points. Four exams will be administered, each worth 80 points. Exam 1, Exam 2, and Exam 3 will be non-cumulative. Exam 4 (i.e., the final exam) will be cumulative. The exams will have questions that will vary in format (e.g., multiple choice, fill-in-the-blank). Exams will only be offered on the dates and times listed in the course schedule. There are no make-up opportunities for the exams once the deadline has passed. The only exceptions to this policy are valid excuses for absences (see Missed/Late Assignment Policy). The exam with the lowest grade will be dropped.
- Group Discussions/Activities – 20 points. Five group discussions/activities will be administered throughout the semester, each worth 20 points. The topic/format of the group discussions/activities will depend on the content for the week. These group discussions/activities will be completed during class.
- Everyday Social Psychology Project – 80 points. You will collect and analyze real-world examples of social psychology concepts learned in this course. Additionally, you will provide descriptions of the concepts and explanations of how each example illustrates them. Detailed instructions for the final paper (e.g., format, length) and rubric will be posted on Blackboard.
- Extra Credit Opportunity (Research Participation) – 10 points. You may participate in a psychology research study or attend a speaker series talk. One SONA credit is worth 10 points. This extra credit opportunity can be completed only two times.

FINANCIAL AID AND VERIFICATION OF ATTENDANCE

If Title IV funds are disbursed to ineligible students (including students who fail to begin attendance), the institution must return these funds to the U.S. DoE within 30 days of becoming aware that the student will not or has not begun attendance. Any student receiving federal financial aid who does not attend by the census date will have their financial aid terminated and returned to the DoE. Please note that for any student who stops attending at any time during the semester, a Care Report will be submitted, and you will possibly be dropped from the class. Your financial aid may have to be recalculated and a portion of your federal aid may have to be returned to the DoE.

WRITING, LANGUAGE, AND DIGITAL COMPOSING CENTER

The Writing, Language, and Digital Composing Center supports graduate and undergraduate students in all three colleges as well as faculty and staff. Tutors work with students to develop reading skills, prepare oral presentations, and plan, draft, and revise their written assignments. Our digital studio tutors support students working on digital projects such as e-portfolios, class presentations, or other digital multimedia projects.

Students can schedule appointments through JagWire under the Student Services tab. Click on "Writing, Language, and Digital Composing Center" to make your appointment. The Center offers face-to-face, synchronous online, and asynchronous digital appointments. More information about what services we offer, how to make an appointment, and how to access your appointment can be found on our website at <https://www.tamusa.edu/academics/>.

MEETING BASIC NEEDS

Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day or who lacks a safe and stable place to live and believes this may affect their performance in the course, is urged to submit a CARE referral (<https://www.tamusa.edu/university-policies/Student-Rights-and-Responsibilities/file-a-report.html>) for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so. This will enable them to direct you to available resources.

MILITARY AFFAIRS

Veterans and active-duty military personnel are welcome and encouraged to visit the Office of Military Affairs for any questions involving federal or state VA Education Benefits. Visit the Patriots' Casa building, Room 202, or contact the Office of Military Affairs with any questions at military.va@tamusa.edu or (210)784-1397.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES

Texas A&M University-San Antonio recognizes the diversity of faiths represented among the campus community and protects the rights of students, faculty, and staff to observe religious holidays according to their traditions. Under the policy, students are provided an opportunity to make up any examination, study, or coursework requirements that may be missed due to a religious observance provided they notify their instructors before the end of the second week of classes for regular session classes.

THE SIX-DROP RULE

Students are subject to the requirements of Senate Bill (SB) 1231 passed by the Texas Legislature in 2007. SB 1231 limits students to a maximum of six (6) non-punitive course drops (i.e., courses a student chooses to drop) during their undergraduate career. A non-punitive drop does not affect the student's GPA. However, course drops that exceed the maximum allowed by SB 1231 will be treated as "F" grades and will impact the student's GPA.

STATEMENT OF HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION: Texas A&M University-San Antonio is committed to the fundamental principles of academic freedom, equal opportunity, and human dignity. To fulfill its multiple missions as an institution of higher learning, Texas A&M-San Antonio encourages a climate that values and nurtures collegiality and the uniqueness of the individual within our state, nation, and world. All decisions and actions involving students and employees should be based on applicable law and individual merit. Texas A&M University-San Antonio, in accordance with applicable federal and state law, prohibits discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or pregnancy/parenting status. Individuals who believe they have experienced harassment or discrimination prohibited by this statement are encouraged to contact the appropriate offices within their respective units.

Texas A&M University-San Antonio faculty are committed to providing a safe learning environment for all students and the university as a whole. If you have experienced any form of sex- or gender-based discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, domestic or dating violence, or stalking, know that help and support are available. Texas A&M-San Antonio's Title IX Coordinator can support those impacted by such conduct in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The university strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the Title IX Coordinator. Please be aware that all Texas A&M-San Antonio employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as counselors and trained victim advocates) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the university. This means that if you tell a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment, sexual violence, or other related misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the university's Title IX Coordinator (titleix@tamusa.edu, 210-784-2061, CAB 439K). If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting requirement, you can contact the Student Counseling Center at (210) 784-1331 or visit them in MADLA 120.

PREGNANT/PARENTING STUDENTS

Texas A&M-San Antonio does not require a pregnant or parenting student, solely because of that status or issues related to that status, to (1) take a leave of absence or withdraw from their degree or certificate program; (2) limit the student's studies; (3) participate in an alternative program; (4) change the student's major, degree, or certificate program; or (5) refrain from joining or cease participating in any course, activity, or program at the University. The university will provide such reasonable accommodations to pregnant students as would be provided to a student with a temporary medical condition that is related to the health and safety of the student and the student's unborn child. These could include maintaining a safe distance from substances, areas, and activities known to be hazardous to pregnant individuals and their unborn child; excused absences because of illness or medical appointments; modified due dates for assignments; rescheduled tests/exams; taking a leave of absence; and being provided access to instructional materials and video recordings of lectures for excused absences, if these would be provided to any other student with an excused absence. Pregnant/parenting students are encouraged to contact the Title IX Coordinator with any questions or concerns related to their status (titleix@tamusa.edu; 210-784-2061; CAB 439K).

Texas A&M-San Antonio has also designated the Title IX Coordinator as the liaison officer for current or incoming students who are the parent or guardian of a child younger than 18 years of age. The Title IX Coordinator can provide students with information regarding support services and other resources.

STUDENTS' RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The following statement of students' rights and responsibilities is intended to reflect the philosophical base upon which University Student Rules are built. This philosophy acknowledges the existence of both rights and responsibilities, which are inherent to an individual not only as a student at Texas A&M University-San Antonio but also as a citizen of this country.

▪ Students' Rights

1. A student shall have the right to participate in a free exchange of ideas, and there shall be no University rule or administrative rule that in any way abridges the rights of freedom of speech, expression, petition, and peaceful assembly as set forth in the U.S. Constitution.
2. Each student shall have the right to participate in all areas and activities of the University, free from any form of discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and pregnancy/parenting or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.

3. A student has the right to personal privacy except as otherwise provided by law, and this will be observed by students and University authorities alike.
 4. Each student subject to disciplinary action arising from violations of university student rules shall be assured a fundamentally fair process.
- Students' Responsibilities
 1. A student has the responsibility to respect the rights and property of others, including other students, the faculty, and the administration.
 2. A student has the responsibility to be fully acquainted with the published University Student Rules found in the Student Handbook, Student Code of Conduct, on our website, and University Catalog, and to comply with them, as well as with federal, state, and local laws.
 3. A student has the responsibility to recognize that student actions reflect upon the individuals involved and upon the entire University community.
 4. A student has the responsibility to recognize the University's obligation to provide a safe environment for learning.
 5. A student has the responsibility to check their university email for any updates or official university notifications.

We expect that students will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful, and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation, or disability. Conduct that infringes on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Students are expected to exhibit a high level of honesty and integrity in their pursuit of higher education. Students engaging in an act that violates the standards of academic integrity will find themselves facing academic and/or disciplinary sanctions. Academic misconduct is any act, or attempt, which gives an unfair advantage to the student. Additionally, any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion may be considered as academic misconduct.

For more information on academic misconduct policies and procedures please review the Student Code of Conduct (<https://www.tamusa.edu/university-policies/student-rights-and-responsibilities/documents/Student-Handbook-2022-23.pdf>) or visit the resources available in the OSRR website (<https://www.tamusa.edu/university-policies/student-rights-and-responsibilities/academic-integrity.html>).

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

This course assumes that all work submitted by students will be generated by the students themselves, working individually or in groups. Students should not have another person/entity do the writing of any portion of an assignment for them, which includes hiring a person or a company to write assignments and/or using artificial intelligence (AI) tools like ChatGPT. Use of any AI-generated content in this course qualifies as academic dishonesty and violates Texas A&M-San Antonio's standards of academic integrity.
