"KEYS" TO SUCCESS IN MGMT 4370

1. Critically read and fully understand your syllabus from the first day of this semester. Make sure to understand that you will have to successfully fulfill many responsibilities in this course if you want to pass it. Taking this course online should not be considered an "easy pass!"
2. Purchase the CONNECT full version (not the trial version) of your McGrawHill textbook as well as your online HBSP simulation from day one of this semester.
3. Print out the "tentative" course schedule provided on pp. 9-10 and enter all your due dates in your own calendar.
4. Complete all your assignments in a timely manner, and do not procrastinate. This is one of the best ways to show the instructor how much you care about this class.
5. The instructor does not accept late assignments; thus, he will not accept any requests for reopening case quiz, simulation rounds, exams, etc. (Just as an FYI: Due to the online nature of most assignments, the systems we use may not permit reopening them.)
6. If you think you may need some extra time to complete an assignment, make sure to communicate your request/issue with the instructor prior to its deadline.
7. Only email the instructor from your "jaquar.tamusa.edu" email account, not via Blackboard.
8. If you have any "special" situation that needs to be communicated with the instructor, you can always schedule a Zoom meeting with him during his office hours to discuss in detail.
9. While taking your exams, the instructor will use Proctorio provided by McGrawHill as a "security" tool; thus, it is completely your responsibility to make sure that your electronic device is compatible with this software. (While reviewing the CONNECT Orientation Videos in the first week of this semester, you will have an opportunity to test whether Proctorio works with your electronic device. Contact ITS & McGrawHill Tech Support for further assistance.)
10. If you have any concerns about possible technical difficulties due to the quality of your electronic device, internet connection, etc., it may be a wise idea to take your exams on campus so that you can request immediate assistance from ITS.
11. If you are experiencing any technical difficulties in registering for your online textbook and/or simulation, make sure to directly contact their customer services.
12. The instructor does value professionalism, which is also considered "vital" important in the corporate world. Make sure to always use a professional tone during all your communications with him and all your classmates.
13. Whatever your situation may be, make sure to always tell your instructor the truth by avoiding any sorts of false statements so that he will help you as best as he can.
14. Make sure that your job schedule, family trips, travels, etc. do not conflict with your deadlines.
15. Remember that the instructor always makes all his decisions based on this very principle of "FAIRNESS TO ALL STUDENTS BY PROTECTING INTEGRITY IN THE CLASSROOM."

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

Course “catalog” description:

“This is a capstone course for graduating seniors majoring in business. The course integrates various analytic tools and processes involved in the formulation and implementation of strategic choices in organizational settings. Students will learn to integrate their functional knowledge and understanding of the business environment with the concepts and theories of strategic management to determine effective ways to resolve complex business problems.”

Strategic Management (SM) is a field of study that evaluates the overall performance of corporations. The underlying premise of strategy is that if an organization wants to be successful, both effective and efficient practices based on well-established theories will have to be formulated and implemented by top management team (TMT) members. Therefore, the focus in this SM course is on how to formulate and implement strategies at both the business-unit and corporate level. Since TMT members (a.k.a. executives) make very critical decisions in organizations, they are responsible for knowing everything in their business units/divisions including accounting, finance, business law, marketing, supply chain, human resources, etc. Thus, while taking this course, you may see some “familiar” topics from your previous classes so that you will refresh your knowledge prior to joining the workforce in addition to learning many distinct concepts and theories.

Main topics in this class include the following:

- The definitions of competitive advantage and strategic management,
- The analysis of both external and internal environments of the firm,
- The importance of both tangible and intangible resources of the firm including the resource-based view,
- Competitive dynamics within the firm including value creation process,
- Characteristics of (and differences between) business- and corporate-level strategies,
- Analyzing firm performance via financial ratios analyses,
- Understanding qualities of entrepreneurs along with entrepreneurial strategies,
- Main pillars of strategic control as well as the critical role of corporate governance.

Overall, this course will provide you with a great learning opportunity of critically analyzing organizations by using a strategic “lens”, developing strategic solutions to organizational problems, and being able to make better strategic decisions to improve your organization’s performance. As future top managers in organizations, you will find all these concepts fascinating via improving your SM perspective throughout this course. In general, this class is designed to be challenging, fun, interesting, and require you to think.

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

Instructor's educational philosophy:

I view teaching as a partnership with my students. I take my responsibility very seriously to assist my students in learning. Now, I hold the assumption that you're taking this course to learn and are fully motivated to develop yourself both personally and professionally. In other words, I would like you to consider this capstone course your "biggest and perhaps the latest" opportunity to improve yourself prior to joining the corporate world. My job will be to assist you in your learning efforts as best as possible and your job will be to put all your effort as strong as possible. Having a positive mindset with the idea that "I am ready and excited for learning new concepts in this class and do know that all this new information will help me improve myself in the field of strategic management" is going to be the very first step for your success in this class. Studying your syllabus from the very first day and communicating with me timely throughout the semester are two other critical "pre-conditions" of your success. Please also keep in mind that FAIRNESS and INTEGRITY are the two main principles that I follow in all my classes. During this one-semester-long academic "journey", I am always willing to help based on these two very principles.

Course objectives:

1. Developing a strategic management orientation to effectively analyze broad and challenging organization-wide problems,
2. Developing managerial and organizational skills to efficiently solve actual problems that companies are experiencing during their business operations,
3. Developing a clear understanding of how your position, as a prospective top executive, relates to the overall performance of your organization by integrating business skills and knowledge that you have already developed or obtained,
4. Making you a knowledgeable and confident "about-to-graduate" student who will represent TAMUSA as best as possible in his/her future endeavors.

Student learning outcomes:

1. Listing key attributes of strategic management,
2. Explaining primary dimensions of external and internal environments of the firm,
3. Defining the concept of strategic competitiveness via resource-based view theory,
4. Assessing the firm performance via financial ratio calculations,
5. Explaining the role of human capital on organizational performance,
6. Distinguish between business-level and corporate-level strategies,
7. Explaining diversification modes as well as their distinct characteristics,
8. Listing key dimensions of entrepreneurial orientation,
9. Assessing the vital role of corporate governance for organizations.

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

Course requirements:

- Mid-term and final exams (20+25 points): Both exams are non-cumulative (unless stated otherwise by the instructor) and may include true-false and multiple-choice questions. They will be taken online. Based on our “security” measures in online test-taking, you will not be able to go back to your previous questions; thus, before confirming your answers, make sure that it is your final answer. All questions are based on PowerPoint slides, required textbook, handouts, and any additional information provided by the instructor. (See exam due dates on pp. 9-10.) (NOTE: I recommend you have made your chapter summaries on a weekly basis so that before taking your exams, you will have all your “good quality” study notes ready to go.)
- Smartbook quizzes (10x2.5 points): You will take a total of ten online quizzes based on all assigned textbook chapters. Your chapter slides (and other related material such as handouts) are to be posted on the Blackboard. (See Smartbook quiz due dates on pp. 9-10.) I urge you to review all those “unfamiliar” topics/concepts you’ve seen in your quizzes so that you will be better prepared for your midterm and final exams. In other words, all these ten quizzes should serve as an excellent “preparation tool” for your exams if you take them seriously and understand them fully.
- Case quiz (5 points): You will take one case-based quiz toward the end of this semester, which includes ten multiple-choice questions. It is very important that you’ve read and understood the case before taking your quiz. You may make “two attempts” to submit your answers for each question without any time limit. (See case quiz due date on pp. 9-10.)
- Reflection paper for the semester [R.P.S.] (5 points): In this paper, you will make three points to explain how our class will (has already) contribute(d) to your future success in the professional world. This is a four-full-page long, 1-in. all margins, 1.5-spacing paper (avoid any extra spaces) to be submitted as a PDF file. While writing this paper, you may talk about some specific concepts/practices that you’ve learned in this class including their impact on your current/prospective professional career. Alternatively, you may explain why you have found strategic management important/interesting including some possible benefits in your professional life. In this paper, it is very important to demonstrate whether you can connect the knowledge you’ve gained in this course with your personal success. In your last/fourth page, you will both list your references (at least 8 of them as weblinks) and include a conceptual diagram (made up of boxes and arrows) summarizing your ideas in this paper. You may not use any direct quotations (a.k.a. “copy&paste” statements) in your manuscript. (See R.P.S. due date on pp. 9-10.)

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

Make sure to cite all your references in the manuscript via in-text citations. Not doing so will be considered PLAGIARISM, which results in earning a zero grade. (NOTE: I urge and encourage you to get help from the Writing Center for this paper.)

- Homework assignments (5+5 points): Both assignments are to be posted on the Blackboard. You will submit them as PDF files on the same platform. (See homework due date on pp. 9-10.)
- Online simulation exercise and report (5+5 points): You will play a total of eight rounds including six practice and two competition rounds. YOU WILL KEEP PLAYING THE SAME TWO ROUNDS FOR A TOTAL OF FOUR TIMES. Basically, rounds 1&2 are the same as rounds 3&4 / 5&6 / 7&8. The first two practice rounds followed by debriefs are to be played during our e-meeting, which I strongly encourage you to attend. Your company performance results from six trial rounds will have no effect on your simulation grade. The format of your simulation report (three-page-long) can be found on the last page of this syllabus. The grading scale is as follows: (See simulation due dates on pp. 9-10.)
 - Submitting decisions for each round: 0.5 pts. (a total of 4 pts.)
 - Making profit in both competition rounds: 1 pt.
 - Making profit in only one competition round: 0.5 pts. (no profit at all: 0)

[IF YOU MISS YOUR DEADLINES IN THIS SIMULATION, THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP OPTIONS!]

Grading policy: Class grades will be decided based on the following: (Midterm letter grades will be decided solely based on your midterm exam grade.)

- Mid-term and final exams: 20+25
- Ten Smartbook (chapter-based) quizzes: 10x2.5
- Case quiz: 5
- Reflection paper for the semester (R.P.S.): 5
- Two homework assignments: 5+5
- Harvard online strategy simulation and report: 5+5

A = 90–100 (a.k.a. “You rock” grade),
B = 80–89 (a.k.a. “Doing good” grade),
C = 70–79 (a.k.a. “Doing so-so” grade),
D = 60–69 (a.k.a. “Barely passing” grade),
F = 59 and below (a.k.a. “Danger zone” grade).

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

None of your grades in this course will be rounded. Basically, you will see all your grades in decimals throughout the semester on the Blackboard and no rounding will occur. At the end of the semester, however, if your two-digit non-decimal final grade ends with number 9, you will be receiving a higher letter grade. For instance, if your final course grade is something between 79.0 and 79.9, you will receive a B grade instead of a C, which is a “practice” that I like to follow to further support the GPA of my students.)*

A VERY IMPORTANT REMINDER: This class is fully online, which totally requires your full attention and dedication. Thus, if you want to be successful in this course, I will urge you to TIMELY read your textbook and study your course materials (chapter slides, handouts, and all other resources posted on the Blackboard) as well as complete all your assignments.

OTHER IMPORTANT POLICIES:

Class attendance policy: In this fully online course, your attendance will be checked by the instructor via the number of assignments you have completed. More specifically, if you do not complete three or more consecutive assignments (e.g., Smartbook quiz#4 as well as both homework assignments), you will be dropped from the course immediately.

Assignment submission policy: All the assignments need to be submitted by the due date and time. Late work will not be accepted and will receive a zero grade unless you have a university-granted official excuse. On the other side, for instance, due to your “special” situation, if you have not submitted your assignment (except both exams) timely and are still interested in completing it, the instructor will assess your situation upon your request and may offer you another opportunity to do so with a 20% of deduction of your grade.

Proper English policy: I recommend you get help and advice from the Writing Center (<https://www.tamusa.edu/student-resources/academic-success-center/writing-center/index.html>) before submitting your assignments. At this level of a course, grammar errors, typos, and unorganized sentence structures are not acceptable. In addition, you are required to use “proper” English. For instance, instead of using “things” and “like”, you should use “factors” and “such as.” Using this sort of informal language in your assignments will result in some deduction in your grade.

Make-up exam policy: There will be no make-up exams unless there is an emergency health situation documented by a doctor’s official letter, or the death of an immediate family (parent/ sibling/ grandparent) documented by a doctor’s official letter, or a special situation accepted by the University such as a participation in an authorized University activity, or a legal proceeding that requires your presence. In general, I strongly recommend you take your exam at its scheduled time. Please make sure to remember that it is your responsibility to arrange a time for the make-up exam and to ensure that an agreed upon time and date falls within the week of the original exam date.

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

Blackboard policy: I will post the course PowerPoint slides and any other supportive course materials as well as announcements or changes to the syllabus that may come up during the semester on this online educational platform. It is your responsibility to check it regularly to be informed of any changes or additional materials.

Communication policy: All your email communications with me should be via your “jaguar.tamusa.edu” email address. Since I do not monitor emails sent via Blackboard, please do not send me any messages there. Besides, make sure to check your emails at least once a day.

Academic integrity violations policy: Simply put, scholastic dishonesty, which primarily includes cheating, plagiarism, and collusion, will not be tolerated in this course. In other words, I have a “zero tolerance” policy regarding any incidents related to academic integrity. All your work in this course must be your individual effort, which means that no collaboration is allowed for any assignments in this class. In particular, if I suspect that you have been assisted by another student to complete your work (individual assignments and/or exams) required for this course or you have aided another student to complete his/her work (individual assignments and/or exams) or you have used some information from a reference without citing it or you have used any unpermitted materials during the exam, you will earn a zero grade for that assignment and I will report the incident to my Department Chair and Dean as well as the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities right away. In addition, you are required to go to <https://catalog.tamusa.edu/undergraduate/academic-policies-procedures/dishonesty/> and read it very carefully. And finally, you are not allowed to use/cite any papers provided by “essay writing/selling” and/or “presentation providing” companies in any of your assignments (e.g., www.ukessays.com, www.slideshare.net, www.essay48.com, www.essaypro.com, etc.). Using these sorts of “references” will make your work invalid, which means earning a zero grade.

AI policy: Broader Use of Generative AI Permitted Within Guidelines

Use of artificial intelligence (AI) tools, including ChatGPT, is permitted in this course for students who wish to use them. To adhere to our scholarly values, students must cite any AI-generated material that informed their work (this includes in-text citations and/or use of quotations, and in your reference list). Using an AI tool to generate content without proper attribution qualifies as academic dishonesty and violates Texas A&M-San Antonio’s standards of academic integrity.

Questions about your grades: Remember that my hope is to see you earn the highest possible grade for an assignment/ exam based on the quality of work that you’ve provided. If you feel that I have made a mistake in grading any of your exams/ assignments, please do the following before talking to me: Carefully review your assignment or examination and look for the correct answer in your textbook and PowerPoint slides; compare them with your response; write down what you think the error is; and make an appointment to meet with me and then we will review the assignment or exam together. If I agree that there is a mistake, your grade will be happily adjusted; however, reviewing your work does not guarantee a grade adjustment.

Other general university policies: They can be seen at the end of this syllabus (pp. 11-15).

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING

Religious Observances: Texas A&M University-San Antonio recognizes the diversity of faiths represented among the campus community and protects the rights of students, faculty, and staff to observe religious holidays according to their tradition. Under the policy, students are provided an opportunity to make up any examination, study, or course work requirements that may be missed due to a religious observance provided they notify their instructors before the end of the second week of classes for regular session classes.

The Six-Drop Rule: Students are subject to the requirements of Senate Bill (SB) 1231 passed by the Texas Legislature in 2007. SB 1231 limits students to a maximum of six (6) non-punitive course drops (i.e., courses a student chooses to drop) during their undergraduate careers. A non-punitive drop does not affect the student's GPA. However, course drops that exceed the maximum allowed by SB 1231 will be treated as "F" grades and will impact the student's GPA.

Statement of Harassment and Discrimination: Texas A&M University-San Antonio is committed to the fundamental principles of academic freedom, equal opportunity, and human dignity. To fulfill its multiple missions as an institution of higher learning, A&M-San Antonio encourages a climate that values and nurtures collegiality and the uniqueness of the individual within our state, nation, and world. All decisions and actions involving students and employees should be based on applicable law and individual merit. Texas A&M University-San Antonio, in accordance with applicable federal and state law, prohibits discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or pregnancy/parenting status. Individuals who believe they have experienced harassment or discrimination prohibited by this statement are encouraged to contact the appropriate offices within their respective units.

Texas A&M University-San Antonio faculty are committed to providing a safe learning environment for all students and for the university as a whole. If you have experienced any form of sex- or gender-based discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, domestic or dating violence, or stalking, know that help and support are available. A&M-San Antonio's Title IX Coordinator can support those impacted by such conduct in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The university strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the Title IX Coordinator. Please be aware that all A&M-San Antonio employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as counselors and trained victim advocates) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the university. This means that if you tell a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment, sexual violence, or other related misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the university's Title IX Coordinator (titleix@tamusa.edu, 210-784-2061, CAB 439K). If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting requirement, you can contact the Student Counseling Center at (210) 784-1331 or visit them in Madla 120.

Pregnant/Parenting Students: Texas A&M-San Antonio does not require a pregnant or parenting student, solely because of that status or issues related to that status, to (1) take a leave of absence or withdraw from their degree or certificate program; (2) limit the student's studies; (3) participate in an alternative program; (4) change the student's major, degree, or certificate program; or (5) refrain from joining or cease participating in any course, activity, or program at the University. Students' Rights and Responsibilities: The following statement of students' rights and responsibilities is intended to reflect the philosophical base upon which University Student Rules are built. This philosophy acknowledges the existence of both rights and responsibilities, which is inherent to an individual not only as a student at Texas A&M University-San Antonio but also as a citizen of this country.

Students' Rights

1. A student shall have the right to participate in a free exchange of ideas, and there shall be no University rule or administrative rule that in any way abridges the rights of freedom of speech, expression, petition and peaceful assembly as set forth in the U.S. Constitution.
2. Each student shall have the right to participate in all areas and activities of the University, free from any form of discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and pregnancy/parenting or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.
3. A student has the right to personal privacy except as otherwise provided by law, and this will be observed by students and University authorities alike.
4. Each student subject to disciplinary action arising from violations of university student rules shall be assured a fundamentally fair process.

Students' Responsibilities

1. A student has the responsibility to respect the rights and property of others, including other students, the faculty, and administration.
2. A student has the responsibility to be fully acquainted with the published University Student Rules found in the Student Handbook, Student Code of Conduct, on our website, and University Catalog, and to comply with them, as well as with federal, state, and local laws.
3. A student has the responsibility to recognize that student actions reflect upon the individuals involved and upon the entire University community.

4. A student has the responsibility to recognize the University's obligation to provide a safe environment for learning.
5. A student has the responsibility to check their university email for any updates or official university notifications.

We expect that students will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful, and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, sexual orientation, or disability. Conduct that infringes on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Students are expected to exhibit a high level of honesty and integrity in their pursuit of higher education. Students engaging in an act that violates the standards of academic integrity will find themselves facing academic and/or disciplinary sanctions. Academic misconduct is any act, or attempt, which gives an unfair advantage to the student. Additionally, any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion may be considered as academic misconduct. For more information on academic misconduct policies and procedures please review the Student Code of Conduct (<https://www.tamusa.edu/university-policies/student-rights-and-responsibilities/documents/Student-Handbook-2022-23.pdf>) or visit the resources available in the OSRR website (<https://www.tamusa.edu/university-policies/student-rights-and-responsibilities/academic-integrity.html>).

--- The Format of Simulation Paper ---

- This is a three-page-long report (1.5-spacing and 1-in. all margins). While writing this report, make sure you do not leave any unnecessary space on the pages so that you can write more.
- In the first half of page one, report major financial variables including net sales, total operating expenses, and profitability in a table for all eight (six practice and two competition) rounds. (If you have missed to play any rounds, make sure to write them as “N/A”.)
- Then, answer the following question in the next page and a half: Compared to your results in the practice (the first six) rounds, what sorts of strategies did lead to different (better/worse) outcomes in your competition (the last two) rounds? (Here, I expect to see some comparisons explaining your performance “shifts” in this simulation. Three/ four paragraphs along with numbers based on your results would suffice.)
- In your last page, answer the following questions: What lessons did you take from this simulation in a paragraph? What did you find the most valuable/ interesting about this simulation in a paragraph? (Making two points for each question and explaining them would suffice.)
