ATTENDANCE AND ABCENSE POLICY

Attendance is expected and important in this course because learning occurs through discussion, collaboration, and shared inquiry. However, this policy recognizes that students bring varied life responsibilities and experiences that may affect attendance.

Class Attendance

- Students are expected to attend class regularly and arrive prepared to participate.
- Because this course meets once per week, each class session is significant.
- More than two unexcused absences may impact the participation component of the course grade.

Excused Absences

Absences will be considered excused for reasons including, but not limited to:

- Personal or family illness
- Caregiving responsibilities
- Work schedule conflicts that cannot be adjusted

- Religious observances
- Military service or institutional obligations
- Transportation or housing instability
- Emergencies or unforeseen circumstances

Documentation is not required unless absences become frequent or patterns emerge.

Communication Expectations

- Students are encouraged to notify the instructor before class when possible.
- If advance notice is not possible, communication should occur within 48 hours after the absence.
- Communication will be handled with respect and confidentiality.

Making Up Missed Work

- Students are responsible for reviewing missed materials and contacting peers for notes.
- Reasonable opportunities will be provided to make up missed in-class work or participation when absences are excused.
- Extended or repeated absences may require a meeting with the instructor to create a success plan.

LATE WORK

This course values learning, growth, and accountability rather than punishment.

Assignment Deadlines

- Assignments are due on the dates listed in the syllabus or LMS.
- Due dates are designed to support reflection and learning progression.

Grace Period

- All major assignments include a 48-hour grace period beyond the listed due date.
- Work submitted within the grace period will be accepted without penalty.
- Students are encouraged to communicate if they anticipate needing this flexibility.

Late Submissions Beyond the Grace Period

- Assignments submitted after the grace period may be subject to a reasonable grade reduction (e.g., 10%).

- Work submitted more than one week late may not be accepted unless prior arrangements are made.

Extensions

- Extensions may be requested before the due date or during the grace period.
- Requests do not require disclosure of personal details.
- Extensions will be granted when requests are reasonable and communicated professionally.

End-of-Semester Policy

- No new work will be accepted after May 4, 2026, except in cases of documented emergencies or institutional obligations.
- Students experiencing significant barriers near the end of the semester are encouraged to communicate early.

Professional Responsibility & Equity Statement

As future educators, students in this course are expected to demonstrate professional responsibility, including communication, reflection, and respect for others' time and learning.

At the same time, this course is grounded in equity, care, and cultural responsiveness. Policies are designed to reduce unnecessary barriers while maintaining high expectations and mutual accountability.

Life circumstances vary, and this course recognizes that students may face challenges beyond the classroom. Please communicate early and often so that we can work together toward your success.

AI POLICY

EDCI 3320 assumes that all work submitted by students will be generated by the students themselves, working individually or in groups. Students should not have another person/entity do the writing of any portion of an assignment for them, which includes hiring a person or a company to write assignments and/or using artificial intelligence (AI) tools like ChatGPT. Use of any AI-generated content in this course qualifies as academic dishonesty and violates Texas A&M-San Antonio's standards of academic integrity.

Statement of Harassment and Discrimination: Texas A&M University-San Antonio is committed to the fundamental principles of academic freedom, equal opportunity, and human dignity. To fulfill its multiple missions as an institution of higher learning, A&M-San Antonio encourages a climate that values and nurtures collegiality and the uniqueness of the individual on our campus and within our state, nation, and world. Texas A&M University-San Antonio faculty are committed to providing a safe learning environment for all students and for the university as a whole. If you have experienced any form of sex discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, domestic or dating violence, or stalking based on sex, know that help and support are available. A&M-San Antonio's Title IX Coordinator can support those impacted by such conduct in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The university strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the Title IX Coordinator. Please be aware that all A&M-San Antonio employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as counselors and trained victim advocates) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the university. This means that if you tell a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment, sexual violence, or other related sex-based misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the university's Title IX Coordinator (titleix@tamus.edu, 210-784-2061, CAB 439K). If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting requirement, you can contact the Student Counseling Center at (210) 784-1331 or visit them in Madla 120.

Pregnant/Parenting Students: Texas A&M-San Antonio does not require a pregnant or parenting student, solely because of that status or issues related to that status, to (1) take a leave of absence or withdraw from their degree or certificate program; (2) limit the student's studies; (3) participate in an alternative program; (4) change the student's major, degree, or certificate program; or (5) refrain from joining or cease participating in any course, activity, or program at the University. The university will provide such reasonable accommodations to pregnant students as would be provided to a student with a temporary medical condition that are related to the health and safety of the student and the student's unborn child. These could include maintaining a safe distance from substances, areas, and activities known to be hazardous to pregnant individuals and their unborn child; excused absences because of illness or medical appointments; modified due dates for assignments; rescheduled tests/exams; taking a leave of absence; and being provided access to instructional materials and video recordings of lectures for excused absences, if these would be provided to any other student with an excused absence. Pregnant/parenting students are encouraged to contact the Title IX Coordinator with any questions or concerns related to their status (titleix@tamusa.edu; 210-784-2061; CAB 439K).

Texas A&M-San Antonio has also designated the Title IX Coordinator as the liaison officer for current or incoming students who are the parent or guardian of a child younger than 18 years of age. The Title IX Coordinator can provide students with information regarding support services and other resources. Young Jaguars can support parenting students with daycare if students meet this criteria: (1) must be enrolled in classes at Texas A&M-San Antonio in the current semester, (2) must be Pell eligible or a single parent, (3) child(ren) must be aged 3 to 12-years-old, and (4) child(ren) must be enrolled in Pre-K-3 through 6th grade. Students' Rights and Responsibilities: The following statement of students' rights and responsibilities is intended to reflect the philosophical base upon which University Student Rules are built. This philosophy acknowledges the existence of both rights and responsibilities, which is inherent to an individual not only as a student at Texas A&M University-San Antonio but also as a citizen of this country.

Students' Rights

1. A student shall have the right to participate in a free exchange of ideas, and there shall be no University rule or administrative rule that in any way abridges the rights of freedom of speech, expression, petition and peaceful assembly as set forth in the U.S. Constitution.
2. Each student shall have the right to participate in all areas and activities of the University, free from any form of discrimination, including harassment, on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, disability, age, and pregnancy/parenting or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.
3. A student has the right to personal privacy except as otherwise provided by law, and this will be observed by students and University authorities alike.
4. Each student subject to disciplinary action arising from violations of university student rules shall be assured a fundamentally fair process.

Students' Responsibilities

1. A student has the responsibility to respect the rights and property of others, including other students, the faculty, and administration.
2. A student has the responsibility to be fully acquainted with the published University Student Rules found in the Student Handbook, Student Code of Conduct, on our website, and University Catalog, and to comply with them, as well as with federal, state, and local laws.
3. A student has the responsibility to recognize that student actions reflect upon the individuals involved and upon the entire University community.

4. A student has the responsibility to recognize the University's obligation to provide a safe environment for learning.
5. A student has the responsibility to check their university email for any updates or official university notifications.

We expect that students will behave in a manner that is dignified, respectful, and courteous to all people, regardless of sex, ethnic/racial origin, religious background, or disability. Conduct that infringes on the rights of another individual will not be tolerated.

Students are expected to exhibit a high level of honesty and integrity in their pursuit of higher education. Students engaging in an act that violates the standards of academic integrity will find themselves facing academic and/or disciplinary sanctions. Academic misconduct is any act, or attempt, which gives an unfair advantage to the student. Additionally, any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion may be considered as academic misconduct. For more information on academic misconduct policies and procedures please review the Student Code of Conduct or visit the resources available in the OSRR website
