Course Description

MS102 This course introduces Students to the professional challenges and competencies that are needed for effective execution of the profession of arms and Army communication. Through this course, Students will learn how Army ethics and values shape the army and the specific ways that these ethics are inculcated into Army culture.

Course Design and Format

This course is designed in an interactive manner. Everyone will be responsible for contributing to the overall learning environment to create an immersive experience. Students will be expected to engage in a professional, respectful, and constructive manner. Lectures will be brief and interactive. Students will have the opportunity to participate in extensive small group discussions and exercises throughout class; focusing on application and reflection. Time will be given in class to discuss/work on projects and papers.

- Proficiency in critical & creative thinking

3. Operations

- Proficiency in synchronizing all Warfighting Functions in Multi-Domain Operations in support of Joint Operations
- Proficiency in understanding the Operational Environment across all domains
- Proficiency in sustainment functions supporting Army Operations

4. Training

- Proficiency in prioritizing, planning, preparing, executing, evaluating, and assessing training

Requirements

Readings

Students are responsible for all assigned and/or optional reading assignments. Students are expected to spend adequate time reading and reflecting on all materials prior to class, to further enrich the classroom experience.

Class Participation

Students are expected to participate actively in learning through critical reflection, inquiry, dialogue, and group interactions. This includes participating in class discussion, sharing personal perspectives and experiences related to principles discussed in class or reading, and working with fellow students to engage in class and lab exercises.

Quizzes

The class is interactive and uses homework and in-class assignments to evaluate learning. Quizzes are used at the instructor's discretion.

Mid-Term Exam (Written Knowledge)

A mid-term exam will be given to evaluate the students' knowledge level achieved for the curriculum materials presented during the first half of the course.

Final Exam (Written Knowledge)

A cumulative final exam will be given to evaluate the students' knowledge level achieved for all curriculum materials presented from the entire semester.

Evaluation and Grading

Class Participation: 15%

In class contribution:

10%

Labs Participation:

5%

Assignments (Lesson Assessments/Practical Exercises/Quizzes): 30%

Mid-Term Exam: 25%

Final Exam: 30%

Solid performance in each area of evaluation is necessary to earn a grade of "B." The following grading scale will be used based on 100 points possible:

90-100 A

80-89 B

70-79	C
60-69	D

NOTE: Every attempt will be made to offer adequate written assessments in explaining evaluations. All late papers and assignments will receive a 10% reduction in grade.

Character Development

Throughout the year, students' individual performance will be evaluated against required MSI-MSIV course end-states and developmental outcomes. This evaluation is the PMSs' assessment of your performance against the Army Leadership Requirements Model (ALRM). Each Cadet is responsible and expected to attain (know and do) the respective requirements at each appropriate MS Level. The tasks are grouped into the ALRM Attributes and Competencies.

Uniforms and Appearance

See attached: Policy Memorandum #6 – Wear and Appearance of Uniforms and Civilian Attire

Required Administrative Information

1. Religious Accommodation

- The Army places a high value on the rights of its Soldiers to observe tenets of their respective religions, or to observe no religion at all
- The Army will approve requests for accommodation of religious practices unless accommodation will have an adverse impact on unit readiness, individual readiness, unit cohesion, morale, good order, discipline, safety, and/or health
- Requests for religious accommodation are categorized into five major areas:
 - Worship practices
 - Dietary practices
 - Medical practices
 - Wear and appearance of the uniform
 - Personal appearance and grooming practices
- For more information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy, Chapter 5, paragraph 5-6 and Appendix P (Accommodating Religious Practices) for additional information

2. Inappropriate Relationships

NOTE: Cadet Command personnel in the below directive, 'recruiter' or 'trainer' refers to 'cadre;' 'prospect,' 'applicant,' 'recruit,' and 'trainee' refers to each Cadet.

Students must read the slide information (Course Overview Lesson) and be prepared to answer questions.

- Per AR 600-32 and IAW Department of Defense Instructions (DoDI) 1304.33 (Protecting Against Inappropriate Relations During Recruiting and Entry Level Training)
- The Army and all Army personnel (including any Army military, civilian, or contractor personnel) will treat each prospect, applicant, recruit, and trainee with dignity and respect as they pursue their aspiration of serving in the military. Army policy prohibits inappropriate relations between recruiters and prospects, applicants, and/or recruits, and between trainers providing entry-level training and trainees. At a minimum, and as required, the prospect, applicant, recruit, trainee, recruiter, or trainer will complete the following administrative actions (Commanders may add requirements to this list).

- 1) Trainers providing entry-level training will sign a DD Form 2982 that acknowledges their understanding of the prohibitions listed in paragraph 5d and their responsibilities regarding the policies to avoid the inappropriate behaviors and relations outlined in this directive. The DD Form 2982 will be recertified annually. The form will be locally filed and kept for 1 year after the trainer has left the unit.
- 2) At the onset of the first training session, trainers will brief trainees on the policies in this directive and provide information that trainees can use to contact someone in leadership if they wish to report any issue related to a trainer's inappropriate conduct.
- 3) Trainees will sign a DD Form 2983 to acknowledge their understanding and responsibilities as outlined in this directive no later than the first day of entry-level training. The DD Form 2983 will be locally filed and kept until 6 months after the trainee has left the unit.

NOTE: See AR 600-32, Chapter 3 for requirements.

3. Online Conduct

- As members of the Army Team, our individual actions, and interactions, on and off duty, online and offline, reflect upon the Army and our values. Every Soldier and Army Civilian is responsible to uphold the Army standards and values, applying all aspects into our lives. This includes our online conduct when communicating with any form of electronic media.
- Any type of online misconduct such as: harassment; bullying; hazing; stalking; discrimination; or retaliation that undermines the dignity and respect of another individual, is not consistent with Army Values, and will NOT be condoned and will be subject to criminal, disciplinary, and/or administrative action.
- It is every individual's (Soldier, Army Civilian, contractor, and Family member) duty to understand the laws and regulations pertaining to Online Conduct. It is every leader's responsibility to enforce those laws and regulations pertaining to Online Conduct.
- For more information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy, para. 4-19.

5. Special Needs

The American with Disabilities Act of 1990 requires universities to provide a reasonable accommodation to any individual who advises us of a disability. If you have a limitation that requires accommodation or an academic adjustment, please arrange a meeting with the office student accessibility services.

4. Sexual Discrimination

Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 is a federal law that states: No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

5. Discriminatory Harassment

Harassment is unwelcome or offensive to a reasonable person, whether oral, written, or physical, creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment. Harassment can occur through electronic communications, including social media, other forms of communication, and in person. Harassment may include offensive jokes, epithets, ridicule or mockery, insults, or put-downs, displays of offensive objects or imagery, stereotyping, intimidating acts, veiled threats of violence, threatening or provoking remarks, racial or other slurs, derogatory remarks about a person's accent, or displays of racially offensive symbols. Activities or actions undertaken for a proper military or governmental purpose, such as combat survival training, are not considered harassment. Discriminatory Harassment is a form of harassment that is unwelcome conduct based on race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity), national origin, or sexual orientation.

The Army will provide equal opportunity and fair treatment for military personnel and Family members without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex (including gender identity), or sexual orientation which are known as the Bases of Discrimination. The Army will also provide an environment free of unlawful discrimination and offensive behavior. The EO Policy applies both on and off post, during duty and non-duty hours, working, living, recreational environments (both on and off-post housing), and utilizing electronic media.

For updated information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy.

6. Diversity and Inclusion

Initiate a Dialogue and Keep it Up. Nationwide protests following the death of George Floyd renewed the urgency for open conversations on tough topics like race, and at TRADOC we are committed to having the dialogue. I recognize each Soldier, Civilian, and Family Member may perceive and react to the current unrest and other societal situations differently. The TRADOC Leadership Team is here to support the entire TRADOC Family. Open dialogue is critical to helping all of us understand and support each other. At every level and in every position, I expect you to talk to your teammates, work harder to listen and gain a better understanding of different points of view, and seek a better perspective that allows us to see the world through their eyes.

Assess our Policies and Programs. The Army and TRADOC must continue to be a national leader in providing equitable and inclusive opportunities and find ways to eliminate any subcultures that threaten our Army Values. We will conduct a thorough review of our internal policies and programs for potential unintended effects or biases. We will also look for better ways to use existing feedback mechanisms such as the Command Climate Survey, Staff Assistance Visits, Special Emphasis Programs, and Focus Groups to better understand perceptions of the workforce regarding race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, or genetic information. Most importantly, we will act on the findings and remain committed to creating more opportunity for our workforce.

Continue to Increase Diversity of our Total Force. The Army must make acquiring, developing, employing, retaining, and understanding the needs of its diverse force the centerpiece of its competitive advantage or risk losing the war for talent to other entities. Accessions is a major component of our mission. We are ALL on the front lines of ensuring our Army is representative of the country we serve.

Change the Way We Train. Every leader must strive to be more socially aware, compassionate, relate to subordinates and peers, identify discrimination, and prejudice, and resolve issues at the lowest level.

For updated information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy.

7. Sexual Harassment/Assault

Across the Army, we continue to focus on eradicating sexual harassment and sexual assault from our ranks. We must do everything within our power to rid the Army of these crimes. This is a readiness issue that affects our ability to accomplish our mission. Over the past several years, we have placed a high priority on our prevention efforts, and although we are on the right track, we still have significant room to improve. In all components, sexual assault reporting is increasing, which is an indication that our Soldiers trust their leaders to address the situation in a professional manner. We all have a responsibility to look out for one another - there can be no bystanders. Stay alert when the warning signs become present, and if you see something, ACT! Leaders and Soldiers have an ethical obligation to intervene to stop sexual harassment and sexual assault from happening. Those who do not, violate the Nation's trust and the trust of their peers.

All Soldiers and Civilians have a responsibility to help resolve acts of sexual harassment. Examples of how to accomplish this follows:

- Direct approach. Confront the harasser and tell them that the behavior is not appreciated, not welcomed and that it must stop. Stay focused on the behavior and its impact. Use common courtesy. Write down thoughts before approaching the individual involved.
- Indirect approach. Send a letter to the harasser stating the facts, personal feelings about the inappropriate behavior and expected resolution.
- Third party. Request assistance from another person. Ask someone else to talk to the harasser, to accompany the victim, or to intervene on behalf of the victim to resolve the conflict.
- Chain of command. Report the behavior to immediate supervisor or others in chain of command and ask for assistance in resolving the situation.
- Filing a formal complaint. Details for filing an informal or formal complaint are included in appendix C of Army Regulation 600-20 (Army Command Policy) and follow the same procedures as for an Equal Opportunity complaint.

For updated information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy.

8. Prohibited Activities

Military personnel must not actively advocate supremacist, extremist, or criminal gang doctrine, ideology, or causes.

Military personnel must reject active participation in criminal gangs pursuant to section 544 of Public Law 110-181 and in other organizations that advocate supremacist, extremist, or criminal gang doctrine, ideology, or causes.

Prohibited activities include groups or causes that advance, encourage, or advocate illegal discrimination based on race, creed, color, sex, religion, ethnicity, or national origin or those that advance, encourage, or advocate the use of force, violence, or criminal activity or otherwise advance efforts to deprive individuals of their civil rights.

For updated information, please refer to AR 600-20, Army Command Policy.

9. Suicide Prevention

ACE

Ask: Ask a direct question such as, “Are you thinking about committing suicide?”

Care: Demonstrate care and concern by listening actively and offering help. Stay present with the person so they are not left alone

Escort: Escort the person to talk with an RA, a professor, or another professional
