Catalog Description of Lecture course

The course encompasses the study of limits, continuity, and derivatives of algebraic, trigonometric and transcendental functions and related applications to include maximizing or minimizing a function and rate of change problems. The course also introduces the definite integral, the Fundamental Theorem of Calculus and application to calculation of areas. Curve sketching and graphing tools will be utilized in exploring these concepts.

Math 2113 and Math 2313 help students develop Critical Thinking, Communication, and Empirical and Quantitative Skills by focusing on student understanding of the calculus concepts to include recognizing, identifying, solving, analyzing, and explaining, and appropriately modeling applicable real -world situations.

Prerequisite: Math 2312 Pre -Calculus with a grade of “C” or higher, or equivalent, or permission by the department.

Required eTextbook and Online Homework Platform

WebAssign for Stewart’s Essential Calculus: Early Transcendentals , 2nd Edition

(ISBN: 9781337772198). Included in student fees. No purchase necessary.

Calculators

Basic scientific calculators (non -graphing, non -programmable) are permitted on quizzes and exams. A TI -30XIIS scientific calculator is highly recommended. Cell phones, graphing calculators, and online math utilities are not allowed on quizzes or exams. When appropriate, more advanced calculators and software may be used on homework assignments and during class discussion.

Class Policies and Expectations

The following policies and expectations have been established for this course to create a productive learning atmosphere for all students. Please bring any concerns you may have to my attention.

1. Students are expected to arrive and be ready to start class on time and stay for the entire class period. Please refrain from leaving during class or packing up belongings early. If you know ahead of time that you will need to leave class early, please inform me before class. If you need to leave suddenly during class, please follow up with me by email after class.
2. Students are expected to participate in discussions, in-class exercises, quizzes and problem presentations. During lectures, class discussions, or group discussions, students should give their attention to the speaker(s) and contribute to the conversation. Students can earn up to 5 points (added to exam scores) based on their level of participation.
3. The use of phones or other electronic devices for non-class related activities is not allowed. Students may use laptops or tablets for note-taking and may also use assistive technology and record, but not as a substitute for note-taking. If a student needs to remain in phone contact with others outside of the classroom due to an ongoing situation, please notify me in advance. In such circumstances, it may be better to be absent from class.
